

Daniel Guggenheim Medal

The Daniel Guggenheim Medal was established in 1929 for the purpose of honoring persons who make notable achievements in the advancement of aeronautics. The Medal is jointly sponsored by AIAA, ASME, SAE, and VFS. Administration of the Medal resides at www.guggenheimmedal.org. Please visit this page for nomination form and requirements. This annual award is generally presented at the Aerospace Spotlight Awards Gala. However, it may be presented at another event, selected by the Board of Award and Medalist.

Full Name: Prof Irvin Glassman

Entry: "In recognition of his profound impact on the application of combustion science and engineering to propulsion research and the successful development of propulsion systems."

Category: Premier Award