At each forum, AIAA conducts hundreds of sessions on the most important technical topics that are shaping the future of aerospace. Now these highly sought after and targeted sessions are available for sponsorship.

Stand out to AIAA forum attendees with:
› A 25-word company summary delivered by the Session Chair
› Distribution of your marketing materials on session attendee seats
› One (1) branded sponsor sign, placed outside the technical session acknowledging you as the sponsor

Entice session attendees to interact with you and your company:
› Ask them to visit your booth or schedule an interview, see a demonstration, play a game, take a survey, discuss partnership opportunities, receive an invitation for networking lunch/dinner, or receive a branded giveaway or voucher.
› List available job opportunities with your company
› Feature new products, research, or company announcements
› List what your company is doing at the forum and how to engage with you

Prices:
